Dear Terje,

thank you for your interest in D21's salon show and the preview of your contribution: Untitled (I will never exhibit again)

You surely know that this statement is irreversible?

Regards,
Michael Moser

I'm not quite sure we understand each other well,
But what do you think of humour in art then?

Dear Terje,

You must understand, I don't have time for this anymore. The exhibition opening is now coming up, and I think I need to focus on that.
